BRIEF CVS OF THE CANDIDATES FOR THE 2008-2010 GOVERNING COUNCIL AND AUDITORS OF HEL.A.S.

(based on information provided by the candidates – March 29, 2008)

Charmandaris Vassilis (O)

Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, University of Crete, Greece (since 2005). He was born in Serres, Greece, on August 14, 1967. He obtained his B.Sc. in Physics from the Department of Physics, of the University of Thessaloniki, Greece (1989) and his Ph.D. in Astrophysics (1995) from the Department of Physics and Astronomy, Iowa State University, U.S.A. He has worked as a Postdoctoral Researcher at the Service d' Astrophysique CEA-Saclay, France (1996 – 1997), as a "Marie Curie" Fellow at the Observatoire de Paris, France (1997 – 1999), and as Research Associate at the Astronomy Department, Cornell University, U.S.A. (1999 – 2005). Since 2002 he is a Chercheur Associate of the Observatoire de Paris, France, and since 2006 an Associated Researcher at IESL/FORTH. His scientific interests are in Observational Extragalactic Astrophysics, on topics related to galaxy interactions and evolution, infrared and mm observations of AGN, Starbursts and Ultraluminous Infrared Galaxies. He has published about 100 scientific papers in refereed journals, which have received over 2500 citations. He is a member of the International Astronomical Union (IAU), the European Astronomical Society (E.A.S.), the Société Française d' Astronomie et Astrophysique, the American Astronomical Society (A.A.S.) and the Hellenic Astronomical Society (Hel.A.S.). He has received an I.K.Y. Scholarship (1985 – 1989), a Fulbright Fellowship (1989 – 1994) and a Marie Curie Fellowship (1997-1999). He is the Editor of the Newsletter of the European Astronomical Society (since 2005) and the Secretary of Hel.A.S. for the 2006-2008 term.

Daglis Ioannis (O)

Director of the Institute for Space Applications and Remote Sensing at the National Observatory of Athens, Greece. He was born in Drama, Greece, on the 22nd of May, 1964. He obtained his B.Sc. in Physics from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (1986) and his Ph.D. in Space Physics from the Demokritos University of Thrace, Greece (1991), after working on his PhD thesis at the Max Planck Institute for Solar System Research (Germany) under the supervision of Sir W. Ian Axford. His scientific interests include Solar System Astrophysics (in particular Solar-Terrestrial Coupling, Space Weather, and Planetary Exploration), Space Applications and Earth Observation. He has published 65+ papers in refereed journals, with 1200+ citations, plus 40+ other scientific papers and 130+ public outreach articles. He has edited and co-authored three books on Space Weather, one of which is recommended teaching material for Space Sciences by the UN's Office for Outer Space. He is the National Representative of Greece at the Programme Committee of Thematic Priority Space of European Commission's 7th Framework Programme; Head of the Greek Delegation to the High-Level Space Policy Group; Member of ESA's Solar System Working Group; Editor of Annales Geophysicae for Magnetospheric Physics. In 2007 he was elected Corresponding Member of the International Academy of Astronautics (IAA). In 1998 he was awarded with the NASA Group Achievement Award. He is a member of the International Astronomical Union (IAU), COSPAR, and the American Geophysical Union (AGU). He is married to Anna Stavridou and they have three sons.

Katsiyannis Athanassios (O)

Assistant Researcher, Institute of Astronomy and Astrophysics, National Observatory of Athens, Greece (since 2006). Born in Patras, Greece on March 31, 1973. He obtained his BSc in Physics from University of Patras (1994), and his PhD in Astrophysics from the department of Physics & Astronomy, University of Manchester, UK (1999). Starlink Manager for the Astrophysics and Planetary Division of the Queen's University of Belfast, Northern Ireland (1998-2001). Leverhulme Trust Fellow at the Astrophysics and Planetary Division of the Queen's University of Belfast, Northern Ireland (2001-2004). Research Assistant, Solar Physics Department, Royal Observatory of Belgium, Brussels, Belgium (2004-2006). He has published more than 20 papers on refereed scientific journals and approximately 30 conference papers.

Mastichiadis Apostolos (O)

Associate Professor, Department Physics, University of Athens, Greece (since 1998). He was born in Athens, Greece, on July 7, 1956. He received his B.Sc. in Physics from the University of Athens (1979), his M.Sc. in Astronomy from the Sussex University, U.K. (1980) and his Ph.D. in Astronomy from the Boston University, U.S.A. (1985). He has worked as a Research Associate at the Max-Planck-Institut for Extraterrestrial Physics, Garching (1985-86; 1987-88), at the University of Adelaide (1988-90), at the NASA/Goddard Space Flight Center, Maryland (1992-93) and at the Max-Planck-Institut for Nuclear Physics, Heidelberg (1990-92; 1993-97). He has been a NASA/NRC Fellow (U.S.A., 1992-93). His scientific interests include High Energy Astrophysics, Radiation Mechanisms and Cosmic Ray Physics. He has published 53 scientific papers in refereed journals and 76 papers in non-refereed journals and conference proceedings, which have received over 1200 citations. He has been the Treasurer of the Hellenic Astronomical Society (Hel.A.S.) for the 2006-2008 term. He is married to Evangelia Hatzipanou and they have two sons.

Nindos Alexandros, (O)

Assistant Professor of Astronomy, University of Ioannina, Greece (since 2006). He was born in Athens on June 7, 1968. He obtained his BSc in Physics from the University of Athens in 1991, as well as his PhD in Astrophysics in 1996. He is one of the Auditors of HeI.A.S. for the 2006-2008 term.

Work address: University of Ioannina, Department of Physics, Section of Astrogeophysics, GR-45110 Ioannina, Greece. phone: +30 2651 098496 e-mail: anindos@cc.uoi.gr

Plionis Manolis (FO)

Research Director, Institute of Astronomy & Astrophysics, National Observatory of Athens (N.O.A.), Greece (since 1996). He was born in Athens, Greece on July 13, 1960. He obtained his B.Sc. in Mathematics from the University of Crete, Greece (1983), his M.Sc. in Astronomy from the University of Sussex, U.K.(1984) and his Ph.D. in Observational Cosmology from the same University (1989). He has been Post-Doctoral Researcher at SISSA-Italy (1989-1992) and at the International Center for Theoretical Physics (ICTP-Italy) (1993-19944). He was also a Human-Capital & Mobility European Fellow (Marie-Curie) at SISSA-Italy (1994-1996). His scientific interests include Observational Cosmology, Large-Scale Structure and Dynamics of the Universe, Clusters and Groups of Galaxies, AGNs. He has published 76 scientific papers in refereed journals and 51 papers in conference proceedings and special volumes, which have received over 1200 citations. He has been Editor of the proceedings of 3 international conferences and 1 international advanced school. He has been the supervisor to 2 PhD students and he is currently supervising 2 more. He has served as a member of the National Committee for Astronomy (2001-2003 and 2003-2005) and an elected member of the governing board of the National Observatory of Athens (2004-2006). He has been awarded with a British Council Fellowship (1987-1988). He is a member of the Royal Astronomical Society (UK), and of the Hellenic Astronomical Society (Hel.A.S.). He has been twice an elected member of the governing body of Hel.A.S and editor of the "Hipparchos" newsletter (2002-2004). He is married to Asimenia Matthaiou and they have one son. He is a member of the Governing Council of Hel.A.S. for the 2006-2008 term.

Stergioulas Nikolaos, (O)

Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece (since 2004). He was born in Guetersloh, Germany, on March 21, 1967, while his origins are from Trikala, Thessaly, Greece. He obtained a B.Sc. in Physics from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (1991), a M.Sc. in Physics (1993) and his Ph.D. in Physics (1996) from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, USA. He has worked as Staff Scientist at the Max-Planck-Institute for Gravitational Physics, Potsdam (1998-1999). He worked at the Department of Physics, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece, as Lecturer (1999-2004) before being elected as Assistant Professor. He has worked as Visiting Professor at the University of Tuebingen, Germany (July 2004) and at the University of Kyoto, Japan (February 2005). His scientific interests include Astrophysics, Gravitational Relativistic Waves, Relativistic Magnetohydrodynamics, Rotating Compact Objects and Black Holes, Relativistic Accretion Disks and Numerical Relativity. He has published 32 scientific papers in refereed journals, which have received more than 900 citations, and 24 papers in conference proceedings and special volumes/books, including several invited review articles. He is a member of the Hellenic Astronomical Society (Hel.A.S.) (since 2000) and an affiliate member of the Gravitational Physics Section of the European Physical Society (since 2000). He was an Auditor of Hel.A.S. in the 2000-2002 and 2004-2006 terms. He is married to Eirini Katsaora and they have one daughter.

Tsiganis Kleomenis, (O)

Lecturer, Department of Physics, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece (since 2006). Born in Larissa, Greece, on January 12, 1974. He obtained his BSc in Physics from the University of Thessaloniki in 1996, and his PhD in Astrophysics in 2002, having received an IKY fellowship (1998-2002). He then worked as a postdoctoral researcher in the Obervatoire de la Cote d' Azur (CNRS), France, as a "Marie Curie Fellow" (2003-2005) and in the Department of Physics of the Univ. of Thessaloniki (2006). His scientific interests include Solar system dynamics, celestial mechanics, formation and evolution of young planetary systems, and nonlinear dynamics. He has published 20 refereed papers, 2 review papers and 16 papers in conference proceedings and has received 300+ citations. He is a member of the Helenic Astronomical Society (HeI.A.S.) since 1997.

Tsinganos Kanaris, (FO)

Professor of Astrophysics, Department of Physics, University of Athens, Greece (since 2001). He was born in Filiatra Messinias on the 29th of July, 1951. He obtained his B.Sc. in Physics from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (1974) and the M.Sc.(1976) and Ph.D. (1981) in Physics from the University of Chicago, U.S.A (supervisor Eugene Parker). He has worked as Research Associate at the Enrico Fermi Institute, Univ. of Chicago (1980-1981) and the Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics (1981-1983). Lecturer at Harvard (1983-84) and then Assistant Professor at the Department of Physics, University of Crete (1984-1988). He worked at the Department of Physics of the University of Crete as Associate Professor (1988-1997) and Professor (1997-2001) before being elected at his present position. He has worked as Visiting Professor at the University of St-Andrews, UK (1991-1992), the University of Torino (Italy) (1992) and the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, (Belgium) (1996), and as Visiting Scientist at the Observatoire de Paris (France) (1991-1992). For two years (1989 -2001) he has worked as Researcher at the Foundation for Research and Technology Hellas (FORTH), IESL. His scientific interests include Plasma Astrophysics, Magnetohydrodynamics, Cosmical Magnetic Fields, Cosmic Jets, Solar Physics, Solar and Stellar Winds, Accretion Disks, Star Formation, Active Galactic Nuclei, Quasars, Black Holes, Plasma Equilibrium and Stability and Nonlinear Differential Equations. He has published about 100 scientific papers in refereed journals and 60 papers in conference proceedings and special volumes/books, with about 2000 citations. Author of Mechanics" and "Plasma textbooks: "Introduction the to Theoretical (2004) Physics/Astrophysics" (2005), editor of the book "Solar and Astrophysical MHD Outflows (Kluwer), translator into the Greek language of the popular textbooks Calculus (Thomas) and Astrophysics (F. Shu) and of the book Invisible Universe (G. Field & E. Chaisson). He has organised several conferences in Greece and has been a member of the SOC of numerous international astrophysics conferences abroad. He is the Hellenic Delegate to ESA's Science Program Committee (2004 -), a member of the Hellenic Council for Research & Technology-Physics, Chemistry, Materials (2004 -), a member of the International Astronomical Union (IAU) and a Founding member and currently the President of the Hellenic Astronomical Society (Hel.A.S.). He is married to Dr Georgia Vlastou and they have three sons.

Vlahos Loukas (FO)

Professor, Department of Physics, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece (since 1985). He was born in Levadia, Greece on April 22, 1949. He received a B.Sc. in Physics from the University of Thessaloniki (1973), his M.Sc. in Astrophysics from the University of Maryland at College Park (U.S.A.) (1976) and his Ph.D. in Astrophysics and Space Physics from the same University in 1979. He has worked as a Postdoctoral Fellow in the Applied Physics Laboratory of Jonhs Hopkins University (U.S.A.), and as Research Professor University of Maryland, U.S.A. before joining the University of Thessaloniki in 1985. His scientific interests are in high energy astrophysics, plasma physics, turbulence and transport phenomena, non linear processes and complexity in plasma physics and astrophysics. He has published 90 scientific papers in refereed journals which have received more than 1300 citations. He has also published more than 20 review articles in special volumes and journals as well as two textbooks in Greek ("Introduction to plasma Physics" and "Differential Multivariable Calculus"). He has been Head of the Section of Astrophysics, Astronomy and Mechanics, of the Department of Physics at the University of Thessaloniki. He is a member of the European Physics Society (E.P.S.) and of the Hellenic Astronomical Society (Hel.A.S.). He is married to Maria Kallery and they have two daughters.
